

IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD.

HARVARD DEFEATS THE CARLISLE INDIANS, SCORE 17 TO 5.

Crimson Put to a Real Test by the Red Men—Princeton Disposes of a Similar Score—Quakers Ease Chicago University—Great Playing—Binghamton Makes Touchdown Against Cornell—Other Games.

All of the big Variety football at vars, except the University of Pennsylvania, were scored against yesterday. Columbia made Yale humble to win, 12 to 5, in a sensational game in this city, the story of which will be found on another page. Harvard had to play hard foot ball against the famous Carlisle Indians by a score of 17 to 5 at Cambridge, the red men thereby breaking the hitherto clean record of the Crimson. Princeton beat Brown, 17 to 5, the Providence eleven making a goal from the field. The University of Pennsylvania played a remarkable game against the Chicago University eleven, the final figure being 41 to 10. Cornell disposed of Dartmouth, 23 to 6, and Annapolis outplayed the strong Lehigh eleven. The results of the leading games follow:

Yale, 12; Columbia, 5.
Harvard, 17; Indians, 5.
Princeton, 17; Brown, 8.
Pennsylvania, 41; Chicago, 10.
Cornell, 23; Dartmouth, 6.
Annapolis, 16; Lehigh, 9.
Lafayette, 16; Newark A. C., 0.

INDIANS MAKE HARVARD WORK.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Oct. 27.—The Crimson Indians, after a hard fight, made Harvard sweat on Soldiers Field to-day but lost the game, 17 to 8. Palmer crossed the goal for Cornell's score in a series of the first half, but the Indians' defense was so strong that could not withstand. The local eleven was weakened by the absence of full back Barry, who had been sent to the hospital for a bad sprain of his knee.

PRINCETON, Oct. 27.—Harvard made a hard fight of it, but the Indians' defense was unbroken by force marching on both sides.

The Tigers showed unexpected strength and hammer at the centre and tackle with a force that was not equalled by the Indians. The Indian eleven was weakened by the absence of full back Barry, who had been sent to the hospital for a bad sprain of his knee.

YALE, Oct. 27.—Harvard, 17; Indians, 5.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 27.—Harvard made a hard fight of it, but the Indians' defense was unbroken by force marching on both sides.

The Tigers showed unexpected strength and hammer at the centre and tackle with a force that was not equalled by the Indians. The Indian eleven was weakened by the absence of full back Barry, who had been sent to the hospital for a bad sprain of his knee.

YALE, Oct. 27.—Harvard, 17; Indians, 5.

THE weather was unfavorable for good playing, a light rain turning into mist as the game progressed. The Indians' defense was unbroken and over 15,000 spectators who lined the stands even for a wet day, watching was frequent. Harvard put up a good show, but the Indians' defense was unbroken by force marching on both sides.

YALE, Oct. 27.—Harvard, 17; Indians, 5.

YALE, Oct. 27.—